Heroic French Decorated.

PARIS, May 24.—Five battalions of infantry, four squadrons of cavalry and one company of marines, all fresh from the trenches at the front, were reviewed by General Gallipin, military governor of Paris. The review was held in the great rectangle in front of the Hotel des Invalides in the presence of an enormous crowd.

In front of each battalion were placed those officers and men who were to receive the cross of the Legion of Honor or military medals. General Gallipin pinned the decorations on the breast of each man and kissed him.

London Pears Gas Bombs. LONDON, May 24.—An intimation that German Zeppelin airships probably will use bombs charged with poisonous gases if they make raids on London is contained in a notice issued by Scotland Yard.

To the caution previously given out, the public should take refuge in houses in order to be out of the way of the fragments of shells which might be fired at enemy aircraft, is the following added injunction:

"It would be well for persons thus taking refuge to keep all windows and doors on lower floors closed so as to prevent the admission of deleterious gas."

Most women would rather be grass widows than spinsters.

Hermit of Santa Catalina Island. SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 24.—The hermit of Santa Catalina Island will probably have to go to the polls to vote hereafter instead of the polls coming to him.

For the first time in its history the California Assembly has passed a bill introduced by a socialist and directed solely at one man. Assemblyman Spengler introduced the bill and the hermit of Santa Catalina Island was the only person in mind when it was drawn. The measure permits the consolidation of election precincts. If passed by the senate and signed by Governor Johnson, the bill will break the monopoly of the hermit to the exclusive right of voting in the only precinct on the island outside the city of Avalon.

Under existing laws, the hermit compels a special election board to travel to his home from Avalon in order that he may cast his ballot. It was figured that it cost about $70 each election to get the hermit's vote.

Historic Home for Sale. LONDON, May 22.—One of the most beautiful houses in England, Montacute House, Somerset, is in the market. It was built by Sir Edward Phelps, who was successively queen's sergeant, master of the robes and speaker of the house of commons. It was commenced in 1550.

The legend over the principal portal of the house runs: "Through this wide opening gate none come too early and none return too late."

In the civil war Montacute was held for King Charles and sacked by Cromwell's men. The gardens and grounds are among the most beautiful in the world.

HERMISTON WINS FIRST GAME OF SEASON SUNDAY

STANFIELD-ECHO TEAM DEFEATED IN 11 INNING CONTEST, 3 TO 2.

HERMISTON, May 24.—(Special.)—Hermiston won her first game of the season here yesterday when in a 11 inning contest the Stanfield-Echo team was taken into camp by the score of 3 to 2. It was a fine, clean, airtight game from first to last and kept the fans on the qui vive. Hermiston made her first run in the fourth but in the sixth Stanfield took the lead in a most peculiar way. With one man on, Charlie Hoskins drove the ball into the outfield, it lost itself in the grass and was not found until he reached home. After that it was blanks for the visitors. Hermiston tied the game in the eighth when two hits spelled a run and in the eleventh won the same way. Clarke pitched a great game for Hermiston, striking out 15 men. C. Hoskins worked for the visitors and did a good job of it. The score: R. H. E. Hermiston.....3 6 1 Stanfield.....2 4 1 Batteries—Clarke and Large; C. Hoskins and F. Hoskins.

WAR DECLARATION.

Chasseurs repulsed a detachment of Austrians.

The Austrians have dynamited two bridges over the Adige 10 miles below Ala in the Austrian Tyrol. The town of Avid has been destroyed for military purposes.

The Turkish ambassador is still at Rome but a formal break between Italy and Turkey is momentarily expected.

From the Italian frontier came reports of the greatest activity in the past 24 hours.

VIENNA, May 24.—Emperor Franz Josef issued a manifesto today characterizing Italy's declaration of war against Austria-Hungary as the "greatest act of perfidy the world has ever known."

He called upon his forces for victory "over the treacherous army to the south of us."

The emperor declared he wanted Italy held up to scorn before the world as a vulture which hovered over the battlefield in sheer greed.

The manifesto said in part: "Italy has abandoned us in our hour of danger and gone, with colors flying, to the enemies' camps. Her declaration of war is an act of perfidy the like of which history does not know. After an alliance of 30 years, Italy has turned and smote her friends simply for material gain. We didn't menace Italy. We didn't curtail her authority or attack her honor. We always responded loyally to the duties of our alliance and have afforded her our protection when she took the field herself. I salute my battlefield troops. The treacherous army to the south is no new enemy to you. I rely upon you and your leaders, and pray to the Almighty that he bless you and your colors and that He take under His gracious protection our just cause."
